[REDACTED] (N 54/U 81) seemed to still be occupied judging by the large number of troops and motor vehicles observed there. Local residents, who confirmed the presence of troops, said that the camp would be vacated in mid-October 1950. No loading operations were observed at the Vogelsang and Hammelspring railroad stations.

Comment. [REDACTED]

25X1X

[REDACTED] stated that the return of troops to the Eberswalde post was scheduled for mid-October 1950 and to the Prenzlau post for the beginning of November 1950.

25X1X

[REDACTED] the units in the Templin maneuver area returned to their posts between 26 and 28 September 1950. [REDACTED] It is believed [REDACTED] erroneously interpreted the departure, in late September 1950, of small units, non-essential for the large-scale final maneuvers, as the general departure of all units from the Templin maneuver

25X1X
